ORDER

Plaintiffs' motion for extension of time to complete the Plaintiffs' fact sheets is DENIED. The Court warned Plaintiffs' counsel that moving forward with litigation would be retraumatizing, and counsel should have planned accordingly to complete the fact sheets on time.

Further, unless Plaintiffs break a law or an Order from this Court, they have a First Amendment right to speak about the case. If Defendant feels Plaintiffs' speech is legally inappropriate, it may file a well-supported motion.

Counsel are reminded to focus on the issues in the case and to use a professional and courteous tone in filings with the Court.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

MICHAEL H. WATSON, JUDGE
